LEOKID RAINCOVER

Leokid Raincover for a stroller is a stylish and cozy companion in nasty weather. It protects your baby from rain, wind, and snow.

It has a universal size and fits most strollers with standard hood, carrycots, and second stroller seats.

Features

The accessory has side windows that increase the viewing area, allowing your little one to enjoy both front and side views. A big window allows you to easily take the baby from the stroller. There is a Velcro to fix the window open. The rain cover has a convenient back pocket to store bottles, toys, and other accessories.

Besides, it has special ventilation holes allowing the inflow of fresh air, reflective elements, and zippers with water-repellent coating.

The Raincover made of fabric is stronger than most polyethylene analogues and is easier to use in frosty weather. The simple design allows setting the accessory quickly and easily. A storage bag goes with the rain cover for its convenient storage and transportation.

Top: 100 % polyether

Window: PVC (polyvinyl chloride)
Trimming: plastic zippers, Velcros.
